

MISSING PAGE

ORIGINAL DOCUMENT MISSING PAGE(S):

Page 1

Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel
Monday - 15 January 1962

Page 2

STAT 4. [ ] Captain W. A. Stevens, Jr., Military Assistant to the Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff, telephoned to indicate the Chairman's congressional schedule, indicating 19 January with Senate Armed Services, 23 January with Stennis' subcommittee on "muzzling the military," 24, 25, 26 January with House Armed Services, and 29 January - for at least four or five days - with the Mahon Defense Subcommittee of House Appropriations. In line with previous years, Stevens wished to make available to us a copy of the Chairman's posture briefing. In the interests of time, since Mr. Vinson had asked for a preview by the 17th, Stevens will have a Captain Fox in his office send it directly to Howard Stoerts who will then review for comments by the Agency. Amery advised of the above.

STAT 5. [ ] Mace Breide, Administrative Assistant to Senator Vance Harthe (D., Ind.), called and said he had in his office four individuals who felt that they had a reasonable plan to organize dissident Cuban groups in this country. He said they had an appointment with Bob Hervich, State Department, and he would like them to see someone from the Agency. An appointment was made for them with [ ] STAT
[ ] OO Field Office. [ ]
[ ]

STAT 6. [ ] Mrs. Miller, on the Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee staff, called and asked if we had a film entitled [ ] STAT
[ ] I told her I would check on this and be in touch.

STAT 7. [ ] On Saturday, Miss Frasier, in the office of Senator Thomas H. Kuchel (R., Calif.), called to say that she was getting together for the Senator's use on Monday information on Soviet merchant shipping. She said she had gotten some figures from the Navy on the Soviet merchant fleet and wished to check them with someone here. Arrangements were made for [ ] STAT
[ ] Current Support Staff/ORR, to call Miss Frasier. [ ] later reported that the matter was taken care of without difficulty and Miss Frasier was advised that there should be no attribution to the Agency in the use of this material.